

Christian Humility

Read: Philippians 2:1-11

Due to the fallen nature that we inherit by virtue of being born in Adam, achieving unity with other people is no easy task. This is true even in the Christian church, for while the power of sin to force us to violate God's law has been broken, the presence of sin remains, and we are continually tempted to go back to the worldly way of doing things (Romans 7:7–25). Therefore, we need guidance on how to achieve the love and unity to which Paul calls us in Philippians 2:1–2.

Thankfully, the Apostle gives us this instruction in verses 3–4 when he calls us both to avoid rivalry and conceit, and to practice humility in our dealings with others. The rivalry and conceit that Paul forbids in Philippians 2:3 is the same kind of envy and rivalry the Apostle describes in 1:15. Instead of jockeying for position or attempting to make a name for ourselves, our motivation for ministry must be love for God and His people, a desire to see our brothers and sisters in Christ flourish.

Such requires that we, in an attitude of humility, “count others more significant” than ourselves (v. 3). What Paul has in view here is not a negative estimation of our own self-worth or a refusal to be honest about our own abilities, for elsewhere he demands that we think of ourselves soberly and properly, recognizing our own dignity without thinking of ourselves more highly than we ought (Romans 12:3). We are not, as it were, to see other people as inherently better than we are because of their talents or position; rather, we are to count others as more significant than ourselves insofar as we consider their needs before our own.

Simply put, within the body of Christ we seek greatness by serving others (Mark 10:35–45). It is not as if there is no place for our own interests — Paul assumes in Philippians 2:4 that we will take our own needs and also the needs of others into account. The point is that our direction must be fundamentally other-centered. We must consider the needs and interests of others with the utmost attention, with an eye to denying our own desires if it means benefitting another.

May you experience the presence of God as we sing, pray, and learn from His Word together.

Pray for the World

Let us lift up our world leaders in prayer during this time of global uncertainty and change. May the Lord guide their hearts towards peace, justice, and a spirit of collaboration as they work together to address pressing issues such as conflict, inequality, and the challenges of climate change. We pray that their combined efforts will bring greater stability, healing, and hope to nations around the world.

Pray for Singapore

We pray for our Prime Minister, Mr Lawrence Wong, and his cabinet. As they manage rising costs of living and seek to care for the most vulnerable among us, may the Lord grant them wisdom, discernment, and a heart for the people.

We pray for policies that are fair and compassionate, and for leadership that reflects the values of righteousness and mercy. May Singapore remain a nation marked by unity, peace, and mutual respect and may we will shine brightly as a testimony of Christ's light in the region and beyond.

Pray for SACC

We pray for our Giant and OLO Children's Ministry. May each child deepen their understanding of God's love and cultivate a personal relationship with Jesus Christ.

We also pray for our dedicated leaders and Sunday School teachers. May they be blessed with wisdom, patience, and joy as they craft engaging lessons that inspire and nurture our children's hearts.

As we enter the final quarter of the year, we pause to thank the Lord for His unwavering faithfulness. May the Lord help us reflect on the specific blessings and lessons we have learned, and guide us as we strive to finish the year, strong in His grace.

Collect – 17th Sunday After Trinity

Almighty God, you have made us for yourself, and our hearts are restless till they find their rest in you: pour your love into our hearts and draw us to yourself, and so bring us at last to your heavenly city where we shall see you face to face; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

SERMON NOTES

Speaker: Ps Raymond Sim
Topic : Make my Joy Complete
Text : Philippians 2:1-11

Introduction

In Philippians Chapter 2, Paul begins to show us the external effects of a worthy life and that is the fellowship and supporting one another as a Church.

What does it take to become a Church that is united in Christ?

1. Eradicate Self-centeredness (Philippians 2: 3-4)

2. Embrace True Humility (Philippians 2: 3)

3. Emulate Jesus Christ (Philippians 2: 5-11)

Conclusion

One word to live by "Others".

Let us go about living our lives for OTHERS.
