A Wise Life

Read: Ephesians 5:15-21

The days we're living in our evil days, meaning sinful days. Which has been true ever since Genesis 3. All the days everyone has lived in, the days we're living in now, and the days which will be before Christ returns will be evil days. This means we don't live on smooth, clear, flat ground. Instead we do life on ground where there are innumerable and unexpected ways to get tripped up spiritually as we walk throughout life. And if we're not paying careful attention how we walk, we will get tripped up, we will fall down, and the pain will be real, both for ourselves and likely for others close to us as well. The call for Christians then is to live not just with our heads in the clouds ignorant of all that goes on around us, no. We must live with our eyes wide open, taking care with each step we take, each day we live.

This is, in part, how we redeem the time, by carefully taking each step. We aren't to live so that life just kind of happens to us, as if we were passive in it all. Rather Christians must be active with intentionality, seeking to use and employ all our time and all our opportunities, for...what? What are we to redeem our time for? Here then is the call: we who have been redeemed by Christ, must redeem all our days to His purposes, to His agenda, to His glory. No other aim is fitting for us. v17 says that those who live like this, those who redeem their time, they are not foolish, no, they understand what God's will for all of life really is. You hear the punch in this? Paul is saying that the Christian life is the only wise life, the only sane life. Living with Him is to grow in wisdom. This is the wise life.

We're glad you joined us!

May you experience the presence of God as we sing, pray, and learn from His Word together.

Pray for the World

Lord, the threat of war spreading across the Middle East is rising due to the ongoing conflict between Israel and Hamas. We pray, Holy Spirit, for Your divine intervention to convict all of sin, righteousness and judgement (John 16:8-11). We pray for the consolation of those who have lost loved ones and homes, a turning away from hatred towards forgiveness, and Your peace which passes all understanding (Philippians 4:7) to befall all in this conflict. We pray for the release of all hostages, and the peaceful return of all to their homes.

Pray for Singapore

Lord, we pray for the Church in our land to have Your wisdom and grace in our addressing of world and national issues, especially those which are contrary to Your values and teaching. Holy Spirit, grant us the discernment of spirits (1 Corinthians 12:10) that we be not deceived by the enemy; and Your counsel to speak the right words at the right time (Luke 12:11-12). We pray for Your compassion and courage, for Your hedge of protection to be around us all and in all we do (Job 1:10).

Pray for SACC

Lord, let us be infants in evil, but mature in thinking (1 Corinthians 14:20); that we may not be tossed around by every wind of doctrine, by human cunning, and by craftiness of deceitful schemes (Ephesians 4:14-15)

1. We pray for the spiritual formation and growth in maturity of our fellow brothers and sisters, for our individual relationships with You to deepen and strengthen, so to withstand all the storms of life.
2. We pray for our Christian Education programme, giving thanks for the opportunity to freely delve into our word, and our many teachers; praying for our greater commitment and support of this programme.
3. We pray for our children, to grow and develop a loving and living personal relationship with You.
4. We pray for our spiritual formation through our cell groups, prayer meetings, worship services, ministries, and fellowships, etc.; praying that we treasure every opportunity to draw deeper unto You.

Collect – 5th Sunday of Lent

Most merciful God, who by the death and resurrection of your Son Jesus Christ delivered and saved the world: grant that by faith in him who suffered on the cross we may triumph in the power of his victory; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit one God, now and for ever.

Introduction

Walk Carefully

1. Making the most of our days (v16)
2. Understand the will of God (v17)
3. Be filled with the spirit (v18)

Conclusion

For Reflection

1. Share 1-2 ways you purposefully walk according to God's will each day.
2. In view of our Lord Jesus imminent return, how might you make the most of your everyday?

Our Vision is to be a House of Healing to the Nations,
Reflecting the Glory of God, Full of Grace and Truth.
