Washing Feet

Read: John 13:12-20

What does Jesus mean when He says that we ought to wash one another's feet? Some Christians have taken this very literally and have thought that our Lord was here instituting another sacrament.

Jesus is not giving us another sacrament to follow here. But what He means is that just as we need the cleansing and forgiveness of our Lord to maintain the sense of unity and refreshment of spirit in our Christian life, so we need to extend to one another free forgiveness for guilt and for the injury that we may do to one another. We are to be, in the words of Paul, kind and compassionate to one another, forgiving each other, just as in Christ God forgave you (Ephesians 4:32).

He knows that it is difficult sometimes to forgive, that the flesh within cries out for revenge. And often we love the feeling of carrying a grudge or of resisting the overtures of other people. But Jesus says that when we are doing that, we are doing what He would not do. We are demanding our rights. And we are forgetting that our Lord and Master humbled Himself, though He was rightfully the Lord of glory, the one with every right to claim the worship of people. Nevertheless, He laid it all aside. He washed the feet of His own disciples.

No Christian has any right to sit in self-righteous judgment upon another. We may bring others under the searching light of the Word of God. We may, out of concern and compassion for their welfare, expose to them what they are doing. But in no sense are we to do so with self-righteousness, with the suggestion that we would never do a thing like that. Our Lord insists that we wash one another's feet in love.

Pray for the World

Father, we continue to plead for Your mercy and divine intervention in the many areas of our world under the tyranny of dictatorships, and suffering under armed conflict. We pray for the protection of the innocent, the raising of godly men and women into leadership, and national repentance for sinful acts perpetuated. We pray for the young, the next generation of these lands, to be protected from exploitation and destructive ideologies; for them to receive good education, learning and growing to live in harmony with one and all.

Pray for Singapore

Father, we pray for our President-elect to be a man of integrity and godly morals. Grant him the strength and stature to represent our nation well, upholding and extending our standing on the world arena. Let him work well with our sitting government, and wisely protect our reserves, as well as guide all in our land on the appropriate policies. Bless him and his family with health and strength, especially he and his wife, as they serve our nation and represent us to the world.

Pray for SACC

Father, we lift up afresh our loved ones who have not as yet accepted You as their Saviour, praying for their salvation. Let the scales of spiritual blindness fall from their eyes, that they may be convicted of and turn from their sinful ways unto You.

We continue to plead unto You:

1. To bless our planned community outreach via the rented premises at Tampines Mart; for our whole Parish to capture the vision and work in unity to loudly proclaim and glorify Your name there.
2. To continue to guide our chaplaincy of Saint Andrew's Community Hospital, blessing the staff with strength and fresh recruits, and the patients with healing of heart, mind and soul.
3. To show us Your way for our partnership with the church in Pursat, granting us direction and favour as we lay our development plans for that ministry before You.
4. To help us be a living witness for You wherever we be – at home, in school, or at work, etc. – daily proclaiming the gospel through word and deed.

COLLECT FOR THIRTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Almighty God, who called your Church to bear witness that you were in Christ reconciling the world to yourself: help us to proclaim the good news of your love, that all who hear it may be drawn to you; through him who was lifted up on the cross, and reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
