Denial

Read: Luke 22:54-62

How is it that such a faithful man as Peter would deny Jesus three times? He starts out well enough. He follows Jesus as Jesus is taken away into custody, following albeit at a distance (22:54). He is bold enough, though, to go right into the courtyard and sit down among those who are declared enemies of Jesus (22:55), even within eyesight and earshot of the action (22:61). This is no coward. He is boldly going into the lion's den. Yet, three times he does deny Jesus, just as Jesus had predicted (22:61).

No doubt Peter felt at risk. If they had arrested his master, how would they treat him? Perhaps he is trying to play the covert operative in this instance. But whatever it was that was motivating Peter, it resulted in him denying the Lord that he loved.

His love is real: it is not that he does not care. Once he realizes what he has done, he goes out and weeps bitterly (22:62). What a difference it makes when the Spirit falls on Peter at Pentecost! (Acts 2). What a difference it makes when Jesus reinstates Peter! (John 21:15 and following). Peter had been so sure that he would not let Jesus down or deny Jesus, but we are aware that pride comes before a fall (Proverbs 16:18). And yet a righteous man falls many times, but each time he gets back up again (Proverbs 24:16).

If Peter could fail in this way, we should watch and pray that we would not fall into temptation too! If Peter did fail in this way, we should not despair if we do fall—but ask God for a new spirit and a clean heart that we might be restored and set free to serve our Lord again!

Pray for the World

Lord, we pray for peace in the Middle East and a swift end to the armed conflict between Israel and Hamas, which many have latched onto as fuel for the eradication of the state of Israel. We pray against all parties stoking the fires of violence and war, for the protection of the innocent, and against the anger and bitterness this war is causing in so many round the world. We pray against the stoking of further resentment and violence, by aggrieved parties and the devil; praying for Your hand to be upon all to bring about a peaceful resolution and forgiveness.

Pray for Singapore

Lord, we pray for our nation in light of the impending change of leadership of our ruling political party from Mr Lee Hsien Loong to Mr Lawrence Wong. We give thanks to You for having raised for us able and committed government leaders in the past, and continue to look to You for the raising of our next generation of leaders to be godly men and women committed to the welfare of all in our land. We pray for leaders unafraid to speak their minds, but more so, who will courageously uphold moral values in line with Your teachings.

Pray for SACC

Lord, we pray for our brothers and sisters in Pursat, Cambodia to grow in their personal relationship with You, and in their vision and commitment to the establishing of Your kingdom where they live. We pray for the raising of pastors and leaders a passion to win souls and build Your Church.

Lord, we ask of You:

1. To stir within us a passion for the salvation of the lost.
2. To empower all that is necessary to be effective in ministering the Gospel effectively to the world.
3. To help us daily walk the straight and narrow, and allow our lives to be a living testimony of Your goodness and love.
4. To stir and convict our loved ones and neighbours, so to respond to the invitation to receive You as their Lord and Saviour.

Collect – Fourth Sunday of Easter

Almighty God, whose Son Jesus Christ is the resurrection and the life: raise us, who trust in him, from the death of sin to the life of righteousness, that we may seek those things which are above, where he reigns with you in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.
