

Exhort One Another

Read: Hebrews 3:12-15

After warning his readers that they are in danger of committing apostasy like the first generation that left Egypt, the author of Hebrews begins telling them how to avoid it. Hebrews 3:13 tells us that one of these helps is to be found in a community of believers that exhorts one another.

The author tells his audience to “exhort one another every day.” Daily and constantly we must encourage other believers in their faith and have other believers encourage us in ours. We must exhort, edify, rebuke, and motivate each other in our Christian walk. When we do this, we avoid false teaching, renew our walk, and lead others out of spiritual depression. Constant encouragement is necessary because our faith is always under attack by the Evil One. Our faith must be constantly encouraged by others or we will fall to Satan.

The author of Hebrews also writes that this encouragement must continue “as long as it is called ‘today.’” This refers back to 3:7, which itself refers back to the Exodus. The Israelites who wandered in the wilderness were given a period of time — forty years — to repent. That period is the one referred to as “today.” Though it was a long period, it was not an eternal period. There came a day when repentance and salvation were no longer possible for that generation.

Like the Israelites, the first audience of the epistle to the Hebrews only had a specific period in which repentance was possible. And like the first audience of Hebrews, we also have a specific period in which repentance is possible. We can only repent and exhort one another as long as we remain alive. That may be eighty years. It also could be much shorter. We do not know when our lives will end. We must exhort one another to salvation today before we die and it is too late.

May you experience the presence of God as we sing, pray, and learn from His Word together.

Pray for the World

Father, we pray for the Church of England in their process of appointing the next Archbishop of Canterbury, praying that those involved in the choice will be prayerful and obedient unto You, and an archbishop be appointed who will lead Your faithful in faithful commitment to Your word, will and ways. We pray that those of the Anglican Communion who have turned to the progressive ways of this world repent, and turn back to You.

Pray for Singapore

Father, we pray for our bishop, Titus, to be healthy -- emotionally, physically, and spiritually -- discerning and wise in the carrying out of all his duties. Guide him as he leads our Diocese, for which we pray that You grant him a clear vision of where to lead our Diocese, and clear guidance on how to get us there. We pray for the raising of more godly and able men to the priesthood, who will help lead our Diocese into the fresh work You have for us.

Pray for SACC

Father, we pray You continue to bless our Parish, binding both the English and Chinese Congregations in love, that united we may step out together to bring more into Your kingdom.

We pray, Father:

1. To give thanks for all in leadership and pray that they be daily anointed and refreshed by You, Holy Spirit, as they serve and minister to Your children and the lost.
2. To lift up to You our Parish staff to be united, supporting and encouraging each other in our service.
3. For our evangelistic efforts to bear good fruit and a mighty harvest of souls for Your kingdom.
4. For each and every member to grow in knowledge and love of You.

Collect – Sunday next before Lent

Almighty Father, whose Son was revealed in majesty before he suffered death upon the cross: give us grace to perceive his glory, that we may be strengthened to suffer with him and be changed into his likeness, from glory to glory; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and for ever.

Recruiting PA Crew

We are thankful for our current team who have faithfully ensured good sound in our services. Greater support is needed in this area, so we ask members to step up and offer your services in this area. Training will be provided.
