Every Decision and Action

Read: James 4:13-17

Head: How much control do you think you have over the future?

Heart: Do you trust that God is caring for you today and tomorrow?

Hands: With what attitude should we make plans and act for the future?

How sure are you about what will happen tomorrow? Next week? After that? The Bible reminds us that though we should make plans for the future and to work to make things happen, we must remember that future events and the fruit of our labor lay in God's hands.

It is important that we make plans and decisions with God's sovereignty and glory in mind. Yes, God gives us choice. Yes, God gives us creativity. Yes, God gives us intelligence and wisdom. But we thrive when we exercise all these things in Christ and for Christ.

We are not meant to live apart from Him. We can, but it's not honoring to Him and it's not good for us. The Bible describes such an attitude as arrogance, thinking that we do not need God and can live just fine on our own. We cannot. In fact, in light of eternity, verse 14 says that on our own, we are just "a mist that appears for a little time and vanishes".

So, with a major transition time coming up soon, take time each day to keep God clearly in view and deep in your heart. make every decision with God's glory as the goal. Take every action with His power in view. At every setback, let His grace and mercy help you back up.

Pray for the World

Father, we pray for Your church in Asia to be well grounded in their knowledge and love of You and Your word, spiritually vibrant and active in evangelism, courageous and persevering in the face of challenge and persecution. May they all stand united in You, expressing Your love toward one another and their neighbours in both word and deed. We pray for your church in Asia to be of impeccable integrity, teaching and upholding Your word and truth with a generous and pastoral heart.

Pray for Singapore

Father, give our leaders wise counsel to run this country in justice and righteousness, and let them not compromise on what is right, just and fair. Keep our leaders from corruption and selfish ambition; and use them as Your instrument against every form of lawlessness. Do not let adultery and sexual immorality destroy family and by Your power, keep same-sex marriage from being accepted in this land. Lord, heal and restore every broken marriage and family. Make every home, every family a place where there is love and respect, not hatred and strife.

Pray for SACC

Father, guide each of us in our daily walk in the marketplace of our school or workplace, that we may be Your faithful ambassador guiding and drawing all unto You.

We pray, Father:

1. You guide us in all our relationships, forgiving those who trespass against us, loving the strangers we encounter, living at peace with all without compromising Your commands.
2. Your blessing to be upon our children in their studies, especially for those who will soon take their major year-end examinations.
3. You help us with our responsibilities and duties at work, to be diligent and excel, always willing to help our colleagues and clients.
4. Your hand to be upon us and our loved ones coping with the challenge of chronic illnesses, that we might have Your peace, daily strength, and healing.

COLLECT FOR FIFTEENTH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY
