

"Our Vision is to be a House of Healing to the Nations, Reflecting the Glory of God, Full of Grace and Truth."

COLLECT FOR 2ND SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

Lord, you have taught us that all our doings without love are nothing worth: send your Holy Spirit and pour into our hearts that most excellent gift of love, the true bond of peace and of all virtues, without which whoever lives is counted dead before you. Grant this for your only Son Jesus Christ's sake, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit.

Article: Great Breakthroughs

Read: Galatians 4:4-7

Throughout the pages of scripture one of the most consistent themes that continually emerges is the lesson that our God is famous for reversing negative situations and turning them into great breakthrough and miraculous victories! It doesn't matter what the circumstances nor does it matter how great the obstacles, the scriptures declare concerning the Lord in Jeremiah 32:17 that "Nothing is too hard for you." In the same way the angel spoke to Mary concerning the measure of the Lord's great power and said, Luke 1:37 "nothing is impossible with God."

When the mountains of our struggles stand high over top of us God's power is higher still! When the valleys of our discouragement seem insurmountable God's strength carries us through to the other side. David is celebrating the transformation of his suffering into God's victory. "You turned my wailing into dancing," what a contrast between extremes. David knows the joy that comes when the darkness is turned suddenly to the light of God's victory. Story after story in the message of God's word teaches us that it is pointless to become consumed with looking upon our circumstances. We are challenged by the Word to place our eyes on the Lord and nothing else. For Ps 121:2 says our "help comes from the LORD."

David has tasted sorrow but now he is clothed with joy. So often it is easy to allow our trials to cloak us in garments of despair. God has a new set of clothes for you! It is the way of God to allow us to taste the futility of attempting to succeed in our own strength. He allows life to prove that we are no match for it apart from God. The Apostle Paul experienced the breaking of the Lord as Christ confronted him on the road to Damascus. Jesus declares to him in Acts 26:14, "It is hard for you to kick against the goads." Paul has enjoyed the praise of men, living as an emerging leader in the Jewish community and yet God brings him to the revelation that he has been in denial; "It is hard for you" to keep resisting the testimony you have seen. Once strong in himself and his stubborn beliefs, now Paul's testimony in 2 Corinthians 11:30 has become, "If I must boast, I will boast of the things that show my weakness." And also in 2 Corinthians 12:10 he proclaims, "for Christ's sake, I delight in weaknesses, in insults, in hardships, in persecutions, in difficulties. For when I am weak, then I am strong."

Paul has learned the secret of the strength of God, the wisdom of God and the timing of God. No longer content to lean upon himself, Paul delights in leaning on God. When we lean, we give God room to move! When we trust, we give God an opportunity to show Himself strong. When we wait we give God the opportunity to create a miracle that brings him great praise and us great joy! Both David and Paul established a legacy of divine intervention. Each one learned to rest in God and to look to the Lord for triumph. In due time God will vindicate Himself and your confidence in Him, as you lean on Him like David and Paul, He will turn your mourning into dancing and clothe you with joy.

Pray for the World

Father, we grieve with those in the United States of America who lost loved ones and friends these past months to gun violence. We pray that all who consider violence toward others as their primary or sole response, to acknowledge their wrong and seek help to control their negative impulses and personal needs. We pray for greater control of the distribution and sale of arms in the land. We pray most of all, that everyone in that nation learn the value of each individual human life, and turn in surrender to Your will and ways.

Pray for Singapore

Father, we give thanks for the school vacations, and the extended time many of us have had to spend with family and friends through staycations and holiday trips this past month or so. We pray for the deepening of our bonds of love, resulting in greater understanding and support of each other in the days ahead. We pray for our school going children to be refreshed by their mid-year break, and ready to return to school for their final semester, particularly those taking their final school exams at the end of this year.

Pray for SACC

Father, we give thanks for the hospitality of Saint Hilda's Primary School these past two plus years, and pray Your ongoing blessing over them. We give thanks too for Saint Andrew's Community Hospital's welcome of us back, and pray for a fresh anointing to get down to Your work upon this return.

This week:

1. We press in to pray for the salvation of our loved ones and neighbours, that a breakthrough may take place this year, and they all come to know and accept You as their saviour and lord.
2. We seek Your unity and patience as we adapt back to our regular venue of worship, praying for the rejuvenation our various ministries, and the opening of new opportunities.
3. We ask for your favour as a team from our Parish reaches out to those in our surrounding community, praying for open doors to minister Your love and grace to our neighbours.
4. We pray Holy Spirit, after all we have heard and learnt about You these past months, that we may experience a great breakthrough in our walk with You in the days and months ahead.

The Book of Philemon

An online seminar organized by the Christian Education Committee of St Andrew's Community Chapel
This little known epistle is the shortest letter of the Apostle Paul. It is also one of his most personal letters that gives us a window into Paul's heart of compassion and empathy towards those in need – in this case, a runaway slave by the name of Onesimus. But weaved into this beautiful letter of appeal is the glorious story of the Gospel. Come and see the heart of God for the lost and needy through the Book of Philemon.
