

“Our Vision is to be a House of Healing to the Nations,
Reflecting the Glory of God, Full of Grace and Truth.”

COLLECT FOR SECOND SUNDAY OF EASTER

Almighty Father, you have given your only Son to die for our sins and to rise again for our justification: grant us so to put away the leaven of malice and wickedness that we may always serve you in pureness of living and truth; through the merits of your Son Jesus Christ our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God now and forever.

Article: The Great Commandment

Read: Matthew 22:35-40

Love God Supremely

We read, “Hearing that Jesus had silenced the Sadducees, the Pharisees got together. One of them, an expert in the law, tested him with this question: ‘Teacher, which is the greatest commandment in the Law?’ Jesus replied: ‘Love the Lord your God with all your heart and with all your soul and with all your mind. This is the first and greatest commandment.’” (v. 35-36). Jesus’ response is a quote of Deuteronomy 6:5. There is one God, and our worship, love, and ultimate allegiance is to Him. We are to teach this to our children and grandchildren when we sit, walk, go to bed, and get up. He is the God who brought Israel out of Egypt and is the God who brings us out of bondage and sets us free today. Notice the repetition of the word “all.” This commandment calls for our total response and total devotion to God. “Heart” speaks of our emotions, “soul” speaks of our spirit, “mind” speaks of our intellect and thoughts, and “strength” (which is added in the Gospel of Mark) speaks of our body and will. God is not satisfied with anything less than our best! God does not want the leftovers in our life. He is first and cannot be second.

Love Others Selflessly

Jesus gave them more than they asked! He tells us that there are two commandments that go together. You can’t have one without the other. In this second commandment, He quotes from Leviticus 19:18. How important are these two commandments? Everything in the Old Testament is built on this foundation.

Notice the word “hang.” This is what we hang our hat on. This is what hangs in the balance. This is why we hang out together. This is why Jesus hung on the cross! John Piper says, “All of creation and all of redemption, hang on these two commandments. All of God’s purpose and plans hang on these two commandments.” Who are we to love? Love God and love others. How are we to love? Love with all our being. Love Him above everyone and everything else. Being a Christian is more than believing in God. It’s loving Him. The Bible says that even the demons believe in him (James 2:19).

Jesus is calling for His church, His people, to be different. Not that we will agree on everything, you don’t even agree with your spouse on everything! But, we need to love God and to love one another. Jesus tells us what is most important: the Great Commandment and the Great Commission. God is love. He builds His church on love. He commands His people to reflect His love (Jn. 13:34-35). We want to live in such a way that when people look at our lives they say, “Those people love God and love one another.” We exist not for ourselves but others. Martin Luther King Jr. said, “Darkness cannot drive out darkness, only light can do that. Hate cannot drive out hate, only love can do that.” We cannot love others selflessly until we love God supremely. Pray this week that God would help you love Him with all your heart, soul, and mind, and love your neighbour as yourself.

Pray for the World

Father, we pray for our Anglican Communion worldwide, for each component part to walk the straight and narrow in obedience to Your Word and faith in Your Will. We pray for the scales to fall of the eyes of all within our Communion blinded by false teaching, wrongly directed compassion, self-seeking stubbornness, and poor judgement. We pray, Holy Spirit, for You to pour forth Your conviction upon us all, granting us the discernment of spirits, a true knowledge of Your Will, and the empowering to "Go, make disciples of all the world."

Pray for Singapore

Father, we lift up our Bishop, Rt Rev Dr Titus Chung, our senior clergymen and lay leaders, clergy and Parochial Church Councils, lay staff and parish leaders into Your hands, for a fresh anointing and Holy Spirit guidance to lead with integrity, courage and compassion, to the praise of Your name. Watch over our respective Parishes as we conduct our Annual General Meetings, letting there be a spirit of unity in our deliberations and godly wisdom in our decisions. We thank you for all who have and will step up into leadership in our Parishes, praying for their obedience unto You in all things.

Pray for SACC

Father, we thank you for the leaders of our Parish, for their heart and service; and pray for Your guidance as they make decisions for our Parish, as well as look into plans for the future, and the raising of others for leadership succession. Sit, O Lord, at the head of all our meetings.

This week:

1. We give thanks for Your goodness and care over our Parish, as reported in our AGM reports; and look to You to help us do better in this new year.
2. We lift up before You the elected Parochial Church Council, English Congregation Committee and Chinese Congregation Committee for the 2022-2023 leadership term, praying for them to have Your heart of love, and Your wisdom and grace in leadership.
3. We continue to bring before You our loved ones and neighbours who have yet to accept You as Lord, praying for a breakthrough this year so they might be receptive to our sharing of the Gospel with them, and turn to accept You as their Saviour.
4. We give thanks for the hosting of our services by SHPS, and pray for our partnership in ministry with SACH that we may soon return to our regularly worship in SACH.
5. We pray for the restoration of our Parish life and ministry, challenged by the ongoing pandemic, looking forward in You to better things and more.

Our love/hate relationship with the Arts

A 4-week course co-organised by Chapel of Christ the Redeemer (CCR) and St Andrew's Community Chapel (SACC)
