

"Our Vision is to be a House of Healing to the Nations, Reflecting the Glory of God, Full of Grace and Truth."

COLLECT FOR DAY OF PENTECOST

God, who as at this time taught the hearts of your faithful people by sending to them the light of your Holy Spirit: grant us by the same Spirit to have a right judgement in all things and evermore to rejoice in his holy comfort; through the merits of Christ Jesus our Saviour, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Article: Do You Believe Jesus?

Read: Mark 16:14-20

Do we believe Jesus words?

Hopefully, you will never have to handle poisonous snakes, or drink poison. Let's be clear, Jesus is not saying we should seek such things out. But what about laying hands on the sick? What about engaging spiritual warfare in your own life and the life of your family? Do you believe that God could prompt you to pray over someone and that in His name, they could be healed? Do you believe that you could tell a spirit of lust or accusation that is coming against you to be silent in Jesus name, and command it to leave?

It is interesting that when Jesus speaks of the supernatural life of his followers, or of the action of the Holy Spirit, we tend to rationalize. Right now you may be thinking, "Well, he was speaking to the Apostles." Mark's Gospel tells us that when Jesus says these words he is speaking to the disciples. This is not specifically addressed to the twelve. It is addressed to all the followers of Christ. You and I are disciples. You may also be tempted to think, "Well, that was then, and this is now. The world is different now." Yes, that is true. The world has changed a lot since the day Jesus spoke these words. But the thing is, Jesus is still the same. He is unchanging. His word is enduring. The fact that we have smartphones now does not mean that somehow the Spirit of the Lord is bound up and inactive.

A quick reading through Acts of the Apostles will demonstrate that this life Jesus speaks about in Mark 16:17-18 was exactly how the first generation set out.

They moved in the power of the Holy Spirit. In Acts, chapter one, Jesus tells those who are gathered before his ascension "you will receive power when the Holy Spirit comes upon you." The Greek word used in the gospel is dunamis. It is the same root word that we use for dynamite. When Jesus speaks of the power of the Spirit coming upon his followers he uses this forceful word to express what he means. Something tangible is taking place. Later in Acts 10, as Peter is speaking, the Holy Spirit falls upon the gentile believers, and it is so obvious that Peter says "Can anyone forbid water, that these should not be baptized who have received the Holy Spirit just as we have?" When the Spirit shows up, people notice.

We need to be challenged by Jesus words. Some of the things he said may seem too fantastic to believe. Perhaps, that is why the Lord gave us the witness of the early Church in Acts and the Epistles. The truth is, when we reflect upon what Jesus said about the Christian life and compare that to the life of the early Church, it becomes pretty clear that God's desire for his people is something more than an academic, routine faith. He desires to move in and through us in inexplicable ways.

So, do you believe Jesus words? Do you believe that God can move in your life in the way Jesus spoke of at the end of Mark's Gospel?

Pray for the World

Lord, with supply chain breakdowns and price increases, the people of many nations – especially of the lower income – are struggling to provide the bare necessities for their families. Nations with high debt – like Sri Lanka – are also struggling to protect their citizens from this challenge, and provide the needed relief and support to get out of their downward economic spiral. Help them find a way out of their bad situation. Let the more able help the less able, and let not the vulnerable be taken advantage of.

Pray for Singapore

Lord, guide our nation as we pivot toward endemic mode in our living with COVID-19. Let all resident in our land continue keeping to good hygiene habits picked up over these past two years, and please continue to protect us all. Help our economy grow, and let all in need secure a job and be provided for. Thank you for our tireless healthcare providers, for their sacrificial care of us, and grant that they in turn may receive care and be refreshed. Let those separated for far too long from their loved ones due to closed borders and high costs of travel be quickly reunited.

Pray for SACC

Lord, let our loved ones and friends continue to reflect upon the meaning of life, and realise that there is more to life than work and self-seeking. We continue to plead for that they acknowledge their sin, and turn to receive You as their personal Lord and Saviour.

Looking to this week, we continue to pray:

1. For our upcoming EC Retreat, for Your anointing to be upon our speaker, Rt Rev Ng Moon Heng; and for You, Holy Spirit, to be poured out afresh upon all participants.
2. For our planned return to our Parish service venue of SACH, and the return of all members to on-site worship and fellowship and ministry.
3. For vacations this June school holidays, that family bonds be renewed and strengthened, travel mercies, and that all be refreshed in body, mind and spirit.
4. For all to remember Your goodness upon our respective lives, daily give thanks to You, and make every effort to give of our best unto You in all we do.
