

“Our Vision is to be a House of Healing to the Nations,
Reflecting the Glory of God, Full of Grace and Truth.”

COLLECT FOR 16TH SUNDAY AFTER TRINITY

O Lord, we beseech you mercifully to hear the prayers of your people who call upon you; and grant that they may both perceive and know what things they ought to do, and also may have grace and power faithfully to fulfil them: through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Article: The Confidence We Have In Him

Read: 1 John 5:14-21

Not only did the apostle John write his epistle, so that believers may know without a shadow of a doubt, that we have eternal life in Christ Jesus, but in this verse, he wants to establish our assured confidence in the privilege of prayer, the power of prayer, and the preciousness of prayer, "THIS is the confidence we have before Him," John writes, "THIS is our confidence, that if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us."

The security of our salvation and the assurance of everlasting life, is founded on the unchangeable Word of God and His unchanging character. And the certainty that God hears and answers the prayers of the righteous, which are offered in accordance with His perfect will, is equally guaranteed, for this is a truth that is founded on God's personal pledge, His promised Word, and His changeless character.

Knowledge of our sure salvation and our eternal inheritance should give every Christian the confidence to pray in faith and to pray expectantly, knowing that God hears our cries, and having the confident certainty that He will answer anything and everything that is asked, according to His will. However, we should be careful that when praying, we do not ask for something that is outside His sacred will and holy purposes.

Some may wonder how we can know God's will, and how can we be sure that we are praying in accordance with His plans and purposes? Well, the Word of God is the greatest indicator of the will of God - not only for us individually but also for the wider world.

Christians in this Church dispensation are equipped to discern the Will of God through studying the Word of God. The redemption of humanity is foremost in His will, but He has laid out clear principles and practices for Christian living in Scripture, practices and principles that we would do well to read, know, learn, and apply thoroughly.

All who are born-again are expected to know the Scriptures thoroughly, to rightly divide the Word of truth, and to put into practice the godly principles and instructions, that are specifically written to the body of Christ - which is the Church. And we are to carry out the good work that God has prepared for us to do, through the power of the indwelling Holy Spirit.

God is no respecter of persons and all believers have been given the same opportunity to walk in newness of life and allow Christ to be formed in us. The more we live for His praise and glory, align our thoughts to the mind of Christ, and keep our fleshly self nailed to the Cross, the more we find that we pray according to the will of our heavenly Father, and the greater will be our confidence that He will hear and answer our prayers, "for this is the confidence which we have before Him, that, if we ask anything according to His will, He hears us."

Pray for the World

Lord, we continue to plead for peace to be restored to the lands torn apart by civil unrest and war; remembering in particular Ukraine and Myanmar. Protect the innocent, and let the dictators and warmongers in these lands be swiftly overthrown. We pray for forgiveness and reconciliation between enemies, the restoration of peace, and the support of the world in the rebuilding of homes and livelihoods in these lands.

Pray for Singapore

Lord, in looking to the future as a nation, we give thanks for the courage and work of our founding fathers and pioneer citizens. Looking to the future, we pray for the citizens of our nation to be as resilient, courageous, visionary, hardworking and sacrificial. In the face of new global challenges, mind-sets and worldviews, raise up for us a new generation of leaders and young ones willing to give their all to the building and the future of our nation.

Pray for SACC

Lord, let us not grow weary from praying for the salvation of our loved ones, or fearful of reaching out to our neighbours with the love and good news of salvation in our Lord Jesus Christ. We pray that we may soon rejoice over their decision to give their lives unto You.

We pray this week:

- For some one we can share the Gospel and pray with this week.
- That our lives before our family and friends be a living testimony to them of Your holiness and grace.
- For us to grow in time spent with You – in Your Word, in worship and prayer, in service, etc.
- That the citizens of Pakistan and the Philippines who have lost their homes and livelihood in recent floods, be provided in their current need, and in the future rebuilding of their lives.
- For the various ministries and outreaches in our Parish to bear much good fruit to the glory of Your name.

A Prayer Request, Feedback, or Query

Have you a prayer request? Some feedback to share? Queries with regard to our church, how you may serve, or about life? Write to bridget\_tan@sacc.org.sg and we will link you with the best person who may help.

Reaching out to the Community

An online seminar organised by the Christian Education Committee of St Andrew's Community Chapel
Have you ever felt led to volunteer in the community? Have you ever felt God's calling to serve in the marketplace? Have you ever wondered what is most fulfilling in the service to the world? Or how to balance volunteering with other competing needs such as family's needs, personal time, etc.? Or what is the most important element to sustain one to serve in the ministry?

The work of Jesus in the world is in the hands of those who profess Him as Lord and Saviour. Hear from our Christian brother and sisters who volunteer in the community and how they handle the different competing needs as they reach out to the community as God's hands and feet.

14 October 2022 (Friday), 8.00 p.m. – 9.30 p.m.

Platform: Zoom

Free admission, but registration required. Registration link: <https://tinyurl.com/saccce202207>

Title : Praying Confidently To Overcome

Sermon : 1 John 5:14-21
Mark 11:22-24

Introduction

Praying With Confidence

1. Teachings and Challenges

2. Foundation for Confidence

3. In the face of sin and the enemy

Conclusion

For Reflection:

1. How confident are you of your prayers being heard by God? How confident are you of your prayers being answered? Why?
2. How may we grow in confidence in praying, and pray better prayers?
