

"Our Vision is to be a House of Healing to the Nations, Reflecting the Glory of God, Full of Grace and Truth."

COLLECT FOR TRINITY SUNDAY

Almighty and everlasting God, you have given us your servants grace, by the confession of a true faith, to acknowledge the glory of the eternal Trinity and in the power of the divine majesty to worship the Unity: keep us steadfast in this faith, that we may evermore be defended from all adversities; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Article: The God of Prayer

Read: Luke 11:11-13

The key to prayer is to see the God of prayer. The reason we pray is because we see that God is great. He is exalted above all. We need to see Him as our Creator. We need to see Him as the one who is in control of the world. We may plan to do something after church, but that does not mean we will! If God wills, we will go to this place or that. He is in control. We are not. We may want something, but it is up to God to decide whether we will have it or not. He is the governor. He is the ruler. He is the judge. He is the King. To pray, we must see the greatness of God.

But there is something else here. Jesus teaches us this in such a beautiful way. He says, suppose that a child goes to his father and says, can I have some french fries and chicken nuggets? Will that father say, "here's a rock"? Here's some bugs I collected for you to eat. Of course, he will not. Why? Because a father cares about his child. He wants to give the child good things.

Now, this is an argument from the lesser to the greater. Jesus says, if you know how to give good gifts to your children, and you are evil, then how much more will your Father in heaven give good gifts? So much more!!

When we look at our needs and the problems of the world, we should not think just about the problems. We should not act as if there is no solution and no help. We have a heavenly Father who can and will help! He just wants us to ask. We should never look at any issue or difficulty and say, we are completely stuck. Why? Because we have a Father in heaven who can and will help!

So, this is how you should think of God: as our heavenly Father! That's why Jesus teaches them to pray, "Our Father." Go to Him! Ask from Him! He wants to give. He has so much. He wants to provide. If He doesn't give you exactly what you want it is only because of His great love for you and because He knows it is not for your best. He will give good things. Expect it. Believe it. See it. And pray to Him!

Pray for the World

Father, we pray for the nation of Israel to continue striving for peace with its neighbours. Let the Arab citizens of this nation to appreciate the freedom and blessing they enjoy as citizens of the land, and speak up against the violent opposition to their nation's existence. We pray for a breakthrough with the Palestinians, that the decades of enmity and violence between the Israelis and Palestinians may finally be put to rest, and peace established so both parties, especially the Palestinians, may refocus on the needs and care of their respective peoples.

Pray for Singapore

Father, we give thanks for Your ongoing blessing of the Church of our land, praying that all will strive to work in unity to seek the welfare of our nation, and reach out to the lost around us in this land. Let us always remain committed to the upholding of Your Word without compromise, granting us both the discerning of the spirits (of the age) and wisdom in addressing the challenges to Your Church. Let us also continue to be generous, blessing others freely as we have been freely and bounteously blessed by You.

Pray for SACC

Father, thank you that we may gather for our EC Retreat these past few days. May the teaching we have received take root in our lives and blossom with good fruit to the glory of Your name. May each new day see us draw closer to You, and grow in the manifestation of the Fruit and Gifts of the Holy Spirit.

The week, we bring before You:

1. Our various vacation plans, praying for the refreshing of our bodies, minds and spirits, and the strengthening of family bonds and friendships.
2. Our plans to reach out to our surrounding community, praying for the strategy, opportunities and favour.
3. Our daily walk in the marketplace, that we ever stand firm in our obedience and trust in Your Word, and that our lives be a living witness to Your goodness and glory.
4. Our nation's ongoing battle with COVID-19 and its impact upon the economy, mental health, and relationships, etc., praying for Your deliverance.
