

“Our Vision is to be a House of Healing to the Nations,
Reflecting the Glory of God, Full of Grace and Truth.”

COLLECT FOR SUNDAY NEXT BEFORE LENT

Almighty Father, whose Son was revealed in majesty before he suffered death upon the cross: give us grace to perceive his glory, that we may be strengthened to suffer with him and be changed into his likeness, from glory to glory; who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, now and forever.

Article: Salt And Light In The World Of Work

Read: Matthew 5:13-16

If you are a follower of Jesus living the beatitudes, you matter. You have an important role to play because you are the salt of the earth. Salt preserves and Christians help preserve what is good in the culture. In the ancient world, salt was very valuable: the Greeks thought it contained something almost divine, and the Romans sometimes paid their soldiers with salt. A soldier who didn't carry out his duties “was not worth his salt.” You are a seasoning agent. In a sense, you can bring the distinctive flavour of God's values to all of life. You can make life palatable.

Note that salt, to be effective, must be in contact with the meat or fish it is to preserve. To be effective, we must be involved where we work and where we live. This puts us in a tension because the dominant culture doesn't necessarily like us. The majority of the time, living according to the beatitudes may make us more successful in work. But we need to be prepared for the times it doesn't. What will we do if showing mercy, making peace, or working for justice jeopardizes our position at work? Withdrawing from the world is no answer for Christians. But it is difficult to live in the world, ready to challenge its ways at any time. In Matthew 5:10-12, Jesus acknowledged the reality of persecution. But in our contacts with the culture, we must retain our “saltiness,” our distinctiveness. It's a balancing act we're called upon to maintain.

“You are the light of the world.” The job description of a Christian is not only to maintain personal holiness, but also to touch the lives of everyone around us. At work, we touch many people who do not encounter Christ in church. It may be our most effective place to witness to Christ. But we have to be careful about how we witness for Christ at work. We are being paid to do our work, and it would be dishonest to stint our employers by using work time for evangelism. Moreover, it would be dishonorable to create divisions at work or a hostile environment for nonbelievers. We must avoid any possible taint of seeking self-promotion by proselytizing. And we always run the risk that our failings at work may bring shame on the name of Christ, especially if we seem to be enthusiastic about evangelism but shoddy in actual work.

With all these dangers, how can we be salt and light at work? Jesus said our light is not necessarily in the witness of our words, but in the witness of our deeds—our “good works.” “Let your light so shine before men that they may see your good deeds and glorify your father who is in heaven.” The beatitudes have spelled out some of those good works. In humility and submission to God, we work for right relations, for merciful actions, and for peace. When we live as people of blessing, we are salt and light—in the workplace, in our homes, and in our nation.

Pray for the World

Father, our Anglican Communion remains deeply divided, with no potential reconciliation in sight. We pray for the conviction of the Holy Spirit to be upon all who have strayed from obedience to Your word and will; and for the faithful to remain both steadfast and compassionate. We pray for our brethren led by clergy and laity who are unfaithful to Your ways, to receive right teaching and protected from the deceptive schemes of the enemy. We pray too that all of us take personal responsibility for our faith relationship with You, be discerning of the spirits, and grow to stand firm in trust and faith in You and Your ways.

Pray for Singapore

Father, grant our Bishop and Diocesan leadership a deep connection with and understanding of the various components of our Diocese, in particular, our Parishes – our strengths and weaknesses, challenges and opportunities. Help us better understand how the symbiotic relationship between our Diocese and Parish are to function, and grant that our Diocese may grow strong as one effective unit maximising the resources You have blessed us with, for Your glory. We give thanks for the many clergy and laity who have taken on leadership roles in our Diocese, praying for them to be sensitive and obedient to Your direction.

Pray for SACC

Father, as more of our members, family and friends, become infected with COVID-19, we pray for the protection of lives and the care of our extended family members. More than granting a speedy recovery, we pray for all – infected or not – to be greatly assured and freed from anxiety as we remember and rest upon the knowledge of You watching over our lives.

We bring before You this week:

1. Our daily walk in the marketplace, praying that we be Your exemplary ambassadors, and asking for opportunities and courage to effectively share Your gospel with those around us.
2. Our mission partners in Pursat, Cambodia, that they dig deep and continue grow personally in their knowledge, love and service unto You; and the ongoing pursuit of the plans set pre-COVID.
3. Our target to establish a programme in our Parish which would guide and help our development as Your disciples, from the day we enter Your family till the day You call us home. Please guide us.
4. Our worship and fellowship gatherings, that we may meet in-person for fellowship, worship You in song, study Your word, and ministry to each other face-to-face, soon.
5. Our needs and the secret desires of our hearts, that all would be in-line with Your will, and be blessed of You to come to fruition.

Our Love/Hate Relationship with the Arts

A 4 week course co-organised by Chapel of Christ the Redeemer (CCR) and St Andrew's Community Chapel (SACC). Is there a place for the arts - dance and media arts, etc, in our churches and worship services? Should the church spend time, money, and energy developing the arts and encouraging members to creatively express themselves?

In this course, we will explore the Church's centuries-old love-hate relationship with the arts; and through an examination of secular and Christian artworks, learn how they might be beneficial or detrimental to our faith.

Speaker: Shirley Bong, MDiv (TTC), MLitt in Theology, Imagination and the Arts (St Andrew's University, UK)

She started a Creative Arts Ministry in Chapel of the Resurrection in 2011. She is currently leading the Newly founded media ministry.

3, 10, 17 & 24 March 2022 (Thursdays), 7.30 p.m. – 9.30 p.m.

Venue: CCR Level 2 Hall (on-site and in-person)

Free admission, but registration required. Registration link: <http://tinyurl.com/lovehatethearts>

Ash Wednesday Service

2nd March 2022, 8:00PM

@St. Hilda's Church (Bethel Hall)

Speaker: Bp. Rennis Ponniah

Ash Wednesday marks the start of the Lent Season. Lent commemorates Jesus' time of fasting and prayer in the midst of being tempted in the wilderness. The Christian community is invited to join in to observe this season in repentance, fasting, worship and engaging in acts of love and mercy. Ashes are an ancient sign of penitence; and it is customary to begin Lent by being marked in ash with the sign of the cross.

This Service is hosted at St Hilda's Church on behalf of our Anglican parishes in the Eastern Area. The on-site service is open for those who are fully vaccinated or exempted and will also be live-streamed. Do block your calendars!

The Anglican Parishes in the Eastern Area comprise; All Saints Church, Chapel of Christ the Redeemer, St. Andrew's Community Chapel, St. Hilda's Church and Marine Parade Christian Centre.
