Reflecting the Glory of God, Full of Grace and Truth.”

COLLECT FOR SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

God our redeemer, you have delivered us from the power of darkness and brought us into the kingdom of your Son: grant that, as by his death he has recalled us to life, so by his continual presence in us he may raise us to eternal joy; through Jesus Christ your Son our Lord, who is alive and reigns with you, in the unity of the Holy Spirit, one God, own and forever.

Article: Flee from Sexual Immorality

Read: 1 Corinthians 6:12–20

The Christian sexual ethic has fallen on hard times. Outside the church, maintaining a biblical view of sexuality is seen as old-fashioned and unloving. Within the church, revisionist views that seek to undo and redefine biblical ethics are ascendant. For instance, statistics point to the increasing prevalence of premarital cohabitation among professing Christians. But Christians do not have absolute liberty in areas where God has decisively revealed a verdict, such as the realm of sexual immorality. Often, this behaviour is defended under the guise of Christian liberty. In 1 Corinthians 6:12–20, Paul offers six reasons why Christians are forbidden to engage in immoral sexual activity.

1. Original design (v. 13). The stomach was created for food and food for the stomach; similarly, the body was created for sexual activity and sexual activity for the body. Right? Paul says no. The body was never designed to engage in fornication or sexual immorality. Having a stomach indeed points to the need to consume food, but having a body does not point to the need for sexual gratification.

2. Bodily resurrection (v. 14). The relationship between the stomach and food is temporary, but the relationship between the resurrected Christ and the bodies of His people is eternal. In the throes of sexual temptation, ponder the eternal destination of your body. If our bodies will be raised as Christ's body was raised, ought we not to keep our bodies pure as Christ's body is pure?

3. Union with Christ (vv. 15–17). The union we Christians have with Christ is a full union—one that includes, mysteriously, the physical body. It is totally inconceivable that he who is a member of Christ's body would then take his body and join it with that of a person who is not his spouse.

4. Unique destructiveness (v. 18). Sexual sin is unique with regard to its consequences. Sexual sins are not easily wiped away from our memories; nor are they easily dealt with in subsequent relationships. They leave a deeper scar than other sins. How many families have been broken up as a result of sexual immorality?

5. Holy temples (v. 19). The most important element of old covenant temple worship was purity. The dwelling place of God cannot be profaned with impurity. In the new covenant, each Christian is a residential abode of the Holy Spirit, rendering sexual immorality an abomination that profanes God's temple.

6. Purchased property (v. 20). A high ransom price has been paid for our redemption that constitutes us as property of the Redeemer. We belong to someone else, and therefore our bodies can't be used in whatever way we want. The decisive question that should determine our sexual conduct is not, How far is too far? but, To whom do I belong?

Pray for the World

Lord, we bring before You today our Province of South East Asia, praying for unity in word and deed in our respective as well as corporate efforts to establish Your kingdom here on earth – in East and West Malaysia, Singapore, Vietnam, Cambodia, Indonesia, Nepal, Laos and Thailand. We give thanks for the in-roads made in these countries through the years, praying for continued and greater progress in the sharing of the Gospel and the establishing of Your Church in these lands. We pray for courage to stand in the face of persecution, and perseverance in the face of church-planting challenges.

Pray for Singapore

Lord, bless our Bishop, Rt Rev Dr Titus Chung with health and wisdom as he leads our Diocese, especially as national borders open and he travels to the Deanery countries under our Diocese for meetings and services. As he refreshes himself first-hand with the respective ministry development and needs of these mission fields, grant him insight and compassion for the lost and needy in these lands. As our Diocese presses in on our mission in these lands, bless our every outreach and development effort to raise the ministry in these lands to maturity and independence.

Pray for SACC

Lord, with the loosening of restrictions, help us put in as much thought to reaching out and ministering Your love to the lost, as we do in seeking our own freedom to travel and reconnect with family and friends – and prayerfully, more!

We raise before You:

1. Our desire and attempts to reach out to the community around our Parish, for members to step up in faith, and for people in our community to look with favour and not suspicion upon our outreach. Please bless our every effort at outreach.
2. Our on-going prayer for members of SACC – especially those we have lost touch with over these past couple of years – to return to SACC, as we rebuild our services and ministries.
3. Our upcoming EC Retreat, for all to make every effort to sign up and be present at this Retreat; and for Your presence to be mightily with us to draw us ever deeper into You.
4. Our cell groups as we regather on-site with one another again, giving thanks for the renewed blessing of physical face-to-face gatherings, and praying for Your holy presence to be with us each time we meet.

Title : Temples of the Spirit

Scripture : 1 Corinthians 6:14-20

Introduction: This is my body; I can do what I like with it?

No. For God's people, the body is sacred.

Main idea: The body is the temple of the Holy Spirit. (6:19)

1. The body will be resurrected. (6:14)
2. The body is the Body of Christ. (6:15)
3. The body belongs to the Lord. (6:19-20)

Application: Flee from sexual immorality (6:18)

Conclusion: We are the temples of the Spirit. Let's glorify God with our bodies (6:20)

Discussion/Reflection questions:

1. What are the common misconceptions about the human body in our society or among Christians today?
2. How does understanding that the body is the temple of the Holy Spirit impact the way you live?
3. How would you glorify God with your body?
